Procedures of Policy No. (2) - Student Code of Conduct

1. Expected Conduct of the Student

Each Student should act honestly and responsibly and respect the University laws, regulations, policies and guidelines. The student must respect other students' rights, faculty members, staff and the public. A student is prohibited from doing any behavior that is considered a breach to other individuals' rights.

2. Disciplinary Actions

- a) Any student who commits a breach to the University laws, regulations, policies and traditions shall be punished with one of the sanctions stipulated here, whether this violation took place on the University Campus or in events sponsored by the University.
- b) A student shouldn't be accounted by the authorities concerned for commission of a criminal act unless the University commences its disciplinary action against the student. Disciplinary actions in the University may commence before the criminal procedures or after them or in coincidentally. Should the student proven innocent, that would not prevent the commencement of disciplinary actions unless the innocence is supported with objective reasons that refute the incident.

3. Filing Complaints

- a) Each member of the University community has the right to file a complaint or make his concerns known without fear of reprisal.
- b) Any faculty member, staff member, or student of the University can file an incident report documenting a complaint against a student of the University for Alleged Misconduct.
- c) All complaints must be put in writing.
- d) No student bringing a complaint under these procedures, whether successfully or otherwise is treated less favorably by a UAEU employee than if the complaint had not been brought. If evidence to the contrary is found, the UAEU employee may be subject to disciplinary measures under University Policies.
- e) Any person named in a complaint will be informed of the substantive nature of the complaint and will have the right to reply as part of the investigation. Information contained within the complaint will be made available only to those involved in its resolution.
- f) Complaints should be made immediately during or after the incident of alleged misconduct. Substantial delays in making the complaint following the date of the alleged misconduct may give cause for the University not to investigate the matter.

4. General Behavioral violations

Any breach to the University regulations, rules and by-laws is considered a violation that necessitates discipline, in particular the following:

a) General

- (i) Any action, saying or clothing that is improper to the rules of decorum or conduct represents a breach to the on or off campus accepted standards of behavior.

(x) Noise

- Residents are expected to respect the Quiet and Courtesy hours established by the Residence Life Coordinator. During Quiet and Courtesy hours the noise level in the living unit must be kept at a minimum. Students must comply with requests for quiet immediately by discontinuing the activity causing the disturbance or noise.
- Sound systems of any type must not be directed out of the windows/doors or used outside the residential buildings. Repeated disregard for the noise level caused by use of sound equipment may result in the confiscation of such equipment.
- Sports are prohibited in all areas of University housing except in designated sports facilities. Activities related to sports, including tossing, bouncing, or kicking of balls or other objects are also prohibited within housing.

5. Failure to Comply

All students who fail to abide by the Student Code of Conduct or other directives issued by the University will be subject to disciplinary action.

6. Students' Rights

All students will be asked to sign a "Letter of Commitment" to the Code of Conduct upon their joining the University, indicating that they will conduct themselves professionally and follow the Student Code of Conduct and other relevant policies. In this letter, it is clearly stated that cheating and other forms of serious misconduct lead to dismissal from the University.

- a) The Student Affairs Deanship and faculty members are required to alert students to the Code of Conduct and the serious consequences of unprofessional behavior and academic and non-academic misconducts.
- b) The colleges will include a warning statement with each exam paper stating the importance of following the Code and setting forth consequences of academic misconduct.
- c) The Colleges will distribute a memorandum to students and faculty members before final exams, explaining that all mobile phones and other similar electronic devices are banned during the administration of an examination.
- d) Students charged with violations of the Code are advised of their due process rights. They are entitled to the following procedural protections:
 - (i) Written notice of the charges
 - If it is determined that a student will be charged with a violation(s) of the Code, a notice is sent to the student. The Notice of Charges identifies those sections of the Code that the student is charged with violating and includes a brief explanation of the facts supporting the charge(s).
 - The University may bring charges against a former student for offenses committed while a student within six months after termination or withdrawal of the student or withdrawal of student organization status. This limitation does not apply to cases that involve academic dishonesty or fraud affecting the acquisition of a degree, over which the University maintains indefinite jurisdiction.

(ii) Presumption of innocence

It is presumed that a student charged with a violation of the Code did not commit such violations unless the student admits responsibility or a hearing determines otherwise.

(iii) Choosing not to participate

Students may choose not to participate in the resolution of their case. In this situation the hearing body may elect to proceed in the student's absence. When a hearing is held in a student's absence, the decisions of the hearing body will have the same force and effect as if the student had been present.

(iv) Opportunity to Respond

Students charged with violations of the Code have the right to respond in writing, verbally or submitting documents to the allegations in front of a hearing officer/panel.

(v) Hearing

- Students are expected to speak for themselves. They may, however, seek the advice of another person to assist them in either the formal or informal process.
- Written notification shall be provided prior to the hearing. Unless already provided to the student, the notification will include the charge(s), date, time, and location of the hearing, the designated hearing officer or panel, a statement of the student's rights, and information on the hearing procedures.
- All concerned parties must be present at the hearing.

(vi) A written decision that supports disciplinary sanctions

The hearing officer will provide the student with a written decision, which will include the sanction(s), if any, to be imposed.

(vii) Right to appeal

Students have the right to appeal the decisions of the sanctions in accordance with the Signatory Authority.

7. Disposition of Breach of Conduct

- a) Allegations of academic dishonesty may be made by students, staff members, or faculty members to the applicable Dean, who will investigate further through a fact-finding panel that he/she appoints from among disinterested faculty members. The allegations may be also investigated by the hearing panel if solid evidence supports the allegation.
- b) The University Registrar is the primary administrator responsible for initiating disciplinary proceedings in cases of falsification of academic records and documents under the applicable policies.
- c) Charges against student for nonacademic conduct violations may be initiated by submitting a written complaint to the direct supervisor. The complaint must state sufficient facts, including specific names, dates, locations and descriptions of the alleged act(s) of misconduct to enable accurate investigation.

8. Disciplinary Procedures

- a) The disciplinary procedures are designed to allow for fact finding and decision making in the context of an educational community, and to encourage students to accept responsibility for their own actions. The intent is to provide adequate procedural safeguards to protect the rights of the individual student and the legitimate interests of the University.

- b) Violations to academic honesty may be processed through a panel hearing, in which the panel will be composed of faculty members, while non-academic violations of the Code may be processed through an administrative hearing composed of staff member(s).

c) Procedures pre Disciplinary Board Session

An initial investigation session is convened with the violator student to determine to what extent he/she is responsible of the violation, in accordance to the following:

- (i) The student is notified in a period not less than five (5) working days from the commencement of the initial investigation session to present him/herself to the investigation committee; if the student fails to attend the investigation session without an acceptable reason, the matter shall be referred to the Students Disciplinary Board to settle the alleged charges.
- (ii) Whoever undertakes the initial investigation may disregard any charges against the student, if it came clear that it is without grounds. In this case, the complainant may file an appeal of the decision to be submitted to the DVC for Students Affairs.
- (iii) The initial investigation may end with a signed accord by the investigator and the student, imposing a disciplinary sanction to the student; by this accord all the disciplinary proceedings shall cease including referral of the matter to the Students Disciplinary Board, also the student's right to appeal the disciplinary decision issued according to the aforesaid accord is fortified.
- (iv) In case the mentioned accord in the previous article is not reached, the matter is to be referred to the Students Disciplinary Board in five (5) working days after the initial investigation session; this period can be extended if the student presents an acceptable excuse to justify this extension.

d) Academic Misconduct

- (i) After receiving a case report from the concerned faculty or staff member, or a complaint from a student, the College Dean will establish a hearing committee of three from among disinterested College faculty members to conduct a preliminary investigation. If the preliminary investigation concludes that the allegation has sufficient substance to warrant formal investigation, the Dean shall forward the Committee's report to the Provost who may decide to forward the case to the Student Disciplinary Board to carry out the formal investigation.
- (ii) The Student Disciplinary Board is formed at the discretion of the Vice Chancellor, after consultation with the Provost. The Board shall include three faculty members, among which at least one from the College of Law. Another faculty member will be from the College where the student belongs.
- (iii) The Student Disciplinary Board will set a date for a formal investigation and will inform the student of the allegation(s) and the date of the session at least ten (10) working days prior to the session.
- (iv) Within (10) ten working days of the completion of the formal investigation, the Student Disciplinary Board shall submit a formal report to the Provost.
- (v) The Provost shall inform the Vice Chancellor of the Board's findings and, if the Board has found that the violation occurred, recommend what, if any, disciplinary sanctions shall be imposed.
