5. Academic Standing, Enrollment Eligibility, and Progress

Overview

Covers policies and procedures relating to the determination of student academic standing including: good academic standing, academic probation, academic dismissal, notification of academic standing, and internal transfer.

Scope

Applies to all students and all academic and related administrative units of the University except those in the College of Medicine and Health Sciences.

Objective

Ensures that the determination of student academic standing, continued eligibility for enrollment, and academic progress functions of the University are conducted in a manner that is consistent with academic principles, standards, and expectations of the University appropriate with its educational mission and academic programs, and operates with necessary integrity, fairness, consistency, and effectiveness.

Policy

1. At the end of each academic semester each student's academic standing will be determined on the basis of the student's term and/or Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) as one of the following: Good Academic Standing, Academic Probation, or Academic Dismissal.
2. A student's academic standing at the end of an academic semester will determine the student's eligibility to continue enrollment in a subsequent semester, to progress within the University or degree program.
