Approval and Modification of Non-Credit Courses

I. Policy

Non-credit courses are collegiate-level courses offered by the United Arab Emirates University that do not carry academic credit and are not a part of a degree program. All non-credit courses must be consistent with the University's vision, mission and strategic plan. These courses are usually offered by a center or institute and are expected to be self-supporting. Prior to implementation, proposals for new non-credit courses or substantive changes to existing non-credit courses must be reviewed and approved through the United Arab Emirates University procedures.

II. Application

This policy shall apply to all operating units offering non-credit courses at the United Arab Emirates University.
