Academic Freedom

I. Policy

The United Arab Emirates University was established by the government of the United Arab Emirates for the education and advancement of its citizens. The University is committed to principles of freedom for teaching and intellectual enquiry and to the ethical and reasoned conduct of research, publication of findings, and expression of ideas and beliefs. The United Arab Emirates University recognizes that it operates within the context of the culture, mores and laws of the United Arab Emirates.

Any questions or concerns with issues of academic freedom at the United Arab Emirates University should be addressed through academic channels, beginning with the department head, proceeding to the dean and then to the Associate Provost for Academic Affairs.

II. Application

This policy shall apply to all faculty at the United Arab Emirates University.
