2. Student Code of Conduct

Overview

The Student Code of Conduct establishes standards of expected behavior for students and student organizations at the University, and puts in place fair and efficient procedures for protecting student rights and handling student misconduct.

Scope

Applies to all University students and student organizations.

Objective

Specifies acts of student misconduct (academic or non-academic) for which an offending individual or student organization will be subject to disciplinary sanctions under the established disciplinary Procedures. These Procedures determine if a student has violated the Code and result in appropriate sanctions when violations are found to have occurred. The Procedures are intended to ensure consistency and fairness for every student in the University through its consistent application for the adjudication of cases of student misconduct.

Policy

1. The University seeks to create an environment that promotes academic achievement and integrity, that is protective of free inquiry, and that serves the educational mission of the University.
2. The University seeks to foster a community that is respectful of the rights, opportunities, and welfare of students, faculty, staff, and guests, that is free from violence, threats, and intimidation, and promotes health and safety of the University community.
3. The University expects all students to conduct themselves as honest, responsible and law-abiding members of the academic community and to respect the rights of other students and members of the faculty and staff to use and enjoy University facilities and to participate in University programs.
4. In order to preserve the spirit of community and provide a comfortable safe environment for all students enrolled in the University, the University holds each member of its community responsible for respecting the rights, privileges and opinions of other members of the community.
5. Students and their organizations shall conduct their activities in a manner compatible with the commitment of the University to maintain an intellectual and cultural environment conducive to personal development and critical awareness, and in compliance with the laws of the United Arab Emirates, and UAE University Policies and Procedures.
6. The University is dedicated to responsible stewardship of its resources and to protecting its property and resources from theft, damage, destruction, or misuse.
7. The University is dedicated to the rational and orderly resolution of conflict.
8. The Code shall apply to student conduct that occurs on University premises or at University-sponsored activities. The Code also shall apply to off-campus student conduct when the conduct, as alleged, adversely affects a substantial University interest and either
