

Graduate Student Ambassadors

The Graduate Student Ambassadors (GSA) is a group of graduate students who serve as a liaison between the graduate student community and the College of Graduate Studies on matters related to graduate education.

The GSA comprises of students representing all active graduate degree programs—one student per program, except for the PhD program, which has one representative from each college. Representatives are nominated by their program Coordinators, and approved by the Assistant Dean for Research and Graduate Studies of the college, to serve for a one-year term at a time. GSA members are selected during the first month of each Fall semester for that academic year. A student may serve for a maximum of two terms. To be selected, a student (1) must have completed at least one semester in the program and (2) must be in Good Academic Standing.

GSA members are expected to be good ambassadors for graduate studies at UAEU to the internal and external communities. They should help promote graduate education and serve as advocates for other students in their respective programs and university-wide. Additionally GSA members should meet on a regular basis with the Dean of the College of Graduate Studies and/or the Graduate Studies Council and exchange ideas, comments, etc. for the purpose of continuously improving graduate education at UAEU.

For more information on the GSA, contact the Graduate Student Affairs Section in the College of Graduate Studies.
