Refunds

Course Withdrawal Charges

Students who withdraw from courses after the Add/Drop period or have been approved to withdraw from the University may be entitled to a refund of charges. Students with such cases should check with the Student Accounts Office.

Delinquent Accounts

Students who do not pay their dues by the end of the Add/Drop period may be subject to several disciplinary actions, including but not limited to the following:

- Cancellation of current and/or future registration,
- Placing Hold on records,
- Denied academic services, and
- Requiring advance payment for future registration.

Financial Support

Graduate students have access to different types of support programs (e.g., scholarships, fellowships and assistantships) that provide financial assistance in various forms (e.g. tuition remission and stipend). The following are descriptions of the main programs offered by the university. Furthermore, students are advised to check with their colleges for other possible financial support opportunities that might become available on short-term or ad-hoc bases.
