

جامعة الإمارات العربية المتحدة
United Arab Emirates University

The College of Graduate Studies and the College of Law Cordially Invite You to a

Master Thesis Defense

Entitled

ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION AT THE FEDERAL SUPREME COURT

By

Mariam Zayed Almazrouei

Faculty Advisor

Dr. Magdi Shuaib, Public Law Department

College of Law

Data & Venue

06:00 PM

Thursday, 25 April 2019

Room1005, first floor, H2 Building

Abstract

The administrative decision represents the most important aspect of the administration's contact with individuals. It embodies the authority of the administration and its individual will to issue binding orders to individuals that must be complied with. It is characterized as a legal act issued by the administration on its own volition and issued by the administration as a national administrative authority.

The administrative decision shall be valid in the right of the administration, once it is issued, if it is issued by the owner of the issuance of it in fulfillment of the conditions of its validity, but shall not apply to the rights of individuals except from the date of knowing it by one of the legally recognized means of law. If reliance on a limited amount of stability administrative decision For individuals to be able to try their situation, but that does not respond to the launch so as not to rise this stability to the point of inertia, where the end of the administrative decisions and their demise and put an end to the effects.

The Federal Supreme Court has established several principles and principles for the protection of acquired rights and their inviolability in light of the legal security that requires stability of transactions. These principles have been addressed in this study by clarifying the concept of the decision in the light of the Federal Supreme Court, and the principles it has laid down concerning its members and its end. The study also pointed to the alleged cancellation of the administrative decision in the Federal Supreme Court.

Keywords: administrative decision, Supreme federal court.