RESEARCH REPORT

2024

NOTE FROM THE DEAN

As Dean of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences at United Arab Emirates University, I am proud to present this report highlighting the exceptional research achievements (Q1, Q2) of our faculty and students during 2024. Our college is home to a vibrant and diverse community of scholars and learners, united by a commitment to advancing knowledge, addressing societal challenges, and preparing graduates to become leaders in their communities and professions.

The research showcased here reflects our dedication to academic excellence and innovation, as well as our engagement with national and global partners in education, government, and industry. Through interdisciplinary collaboration and a focus on real-world impact, we continue to shape the future of the humanities and social sciences, both in the UAE and beyond. I invite you to explore the remarkable contributions that make our college a distinguished leader in the field.

Sincerely,

MOHAMED BINHUWADIN

Dean, College of Humanities and Social Sciences
United Arab Emirates University

The College of Humanities and Social Sciences at United Arab Emirates University is committed to fostering intellectual curiosity, critical inquiry, and impactful research that addresses both local and global societal challenges. The year 2024 has been marked by a wealth of scholarly activity, as our faculty and students have pursued innovative projects spanning disciplines such as history, literature, sociology, political science, cognitive sciences and beyond. This report offers a comprehensive overview of these efforts, highlighting the ways in which our research not only advances academic knowledge but also contributes to the cultural, social, and economic development of the United Arab Emirates and the wider region.

By bringing together diverse perspectives and methodologies, our college continues to play a pivotal role in contributing to national development and enriching the academic landscape. The research featured (Q1, Q2) in this report reflects our dedication to excellence, collaboration, and the pursuit of solutions to real-world problems. Each project underscores our belief that the humanities and social sciences are essential to understanding the complexities of contemporary society and to building a more inclusive and sustainable future. As you explore the achievements of the past year, we invite you to consider the profound impact of our collective work and the ongoing mission of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences at United Arab Emirates University.
