Job Description:	The Unilever Future Leaders Programme is our global management trainee programme that delivers a truly global proposition in the employment market - ensuring one global currency of management trainees, enabling greater talent mobility within the business. We recruit Management Trainees in nearly 50 countries and in 2011 we received approximately 220,000 applications worldwide. We recruited 720 UFLP graduates in 2011. Unilever is becoming more global and we must accelerate the development of our talent and encourage greater mobility by developing bigger jobs with more responsibility. We have reviewed existing programmes and best practices and identified four target areas to lift programme standards globally, these are attraction, selection, development and performance & reward. As one of the world's greatest and leading consumer goods companies, we offer people with talent, passion and integrity some of the world's greatest careers. I would like to invite you to apply to our Unilever Future Leaders Program. The Unilever Future Leaders Programme (UFLP) is about learning business fast. It's about growing iconic multi-million euro, market-leading brands from day one. It's tapping into continuous business mentoring, excellent training, and hands-on responsibility. It's learning like you've never learned before. It's challenging, make no mistake. But we're looking to make managers of you in two to three years. You will drive your career and some of the world's most-loved brands into the future. To complete your online application please log in to our website, www.unilevernamegraduates.com.
