

AMRC highlights social responsibility, sustainability, and management challenges

A group of experts, scientists, researchers and specialists in the field of business management, strategic management, research and education from different countries of the world gathered in Al Ain to discuss management challenges faced by businesses in South Asia and Middle East, social and environmental factors and corporate sustainability, during the 8th Asian Management Case and Research Conference, AMRC, 2019.

Published on March 26
2019

